DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant

1. This communication is in response to the Amendment filed on 11/13/06. Claims 1-20 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

> (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haynes et al (2005/0261986) in view of Obradovich et al (2002/0013815), for substantially the same reasons given in the prior Office Action, and incorporated herein. Further reasons are presented hereinbelow.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed on 11/13/06 wit respect to claims 1-20 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

(A) At pages 8-16, Applicant's argues the followings:

(1) The references of Haynes and Obradovich do not suggest the claim invention for a variety of reasons " Wherein there exists no data communication link between the fleet of cars and the management.

(2) Haynes does not teach a key generation system for generating digital keys for renters of the car rental system.

(3) Haynes does not teach or disclose "invalidating a digital key".

(4) Haynes does not teach the use of Internet for the purpose of accessing a management system for handling car reservation and car return.

(5) Obradovich does not teach wherein each of said fleet of cars has a storage device for storing a record of the digital key.

(6) Obradovich and Haynes do not teach "checking by the reservation server an availability of a requested car and, if a car is available, creating by the reservation server a digital key by car and user information with a digital signature of the reservation server.

(7) The Office Action is based upon an impermissible hindsight and an improper assertion of technical fact in an area of esoteric technology without support by citation of any reference work.

(B) With respect to Applicant's first argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear teachings of Obradovich for a feature See Page 10, Paragraph 0106. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(C) With respect to Applicant's second argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear teachings of Obradovich for a feature See Page 10, Paragraphs 0103-0104 and Paragraphs 0108-0112. Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(D) With respect to Applicant's third argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear teachings of Obradovich for a feature since the E-card has been programmed and sensed therefore it can also disabled the key (See Obradovich, Page 10, Paragraphs 0106-0108). Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(E) With respect to Applicant's fourth and fifth arguments, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear teachings of Obradovich for such a feature See Page 11, Paragraphs 0115-0118). Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(F) With respect to Applicant's sixth argument, Examiner respectfully submitted that He relied upon the clear teachings of Haynes for such a feature See Page 2, Paragraphs 0019-0020). Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

(G) In response, the Examiner respectfully submits that obviousness is determined on the basis of the evidence as a whole and the relative persuasiveness of the arguments. See In re Oetiker, 977 F.2d 1443, 1445, 24 USPQ2d 1443, 1444 (Fed. Cir.

1992); In re Hedges, 783 F.2d 1038, 1039, 228 USPQ 685,686 (Fed. Cir. 1992); In re Piasecki, 745 F.2d 1468, 1472, 223 USPQ 785,788 (Fed. Cir. 1984); and In re Rinehart, 531 F.2d 1048, 1052, 189 USPQ 143,147 (CCPA 1976). Using this standard, the Examiner respectfully submits that he has at least satisfied the burden of presenting a prima facie case of obviousness, since he has presented evidence of corresponding claim elements in the prior art and has expressly articulated the combinations and the motivations for combinations that fairly suggest Applicant's claimed. Moreover, in the instant case, the Examiner respectfully notes that each and every motivation to combine the applied references are accompanied by select portions of the respective reference(s) which specifically support that particular motivation and/or an explanation based on the logic and scientific reasoning of one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of the invention that support a holding of obviousness. As such, it is NOT seen that the Examiner's combination of references is unsupported by the applied prior art of record. Rather, it is respectfully submitted that explanation based on the logic and scientific reasoning of one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of the invention that support a holding of obviousness has been adequately provided by the motivations and reasons indicated by the Examiner, Ex parte Levengood, 28 USPQ2d 1300 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter., 4/22/93).

In addition, it must be recognized that any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning. But so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the claimed invention was made, and does not include knowledge gleaned only from the Applicant's disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper. See In re McLaughlin, 443 F.2d 1392, 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971). Therefore, Applicant's argument is not persuasive and the rejection is hereby sustained.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
